HARNESS RACING.

J. Story Curtis should present Royal Stag to the handicapper, who evidently has an exalted idea of Royal Stag a quality as a racer.

There was a report that George Keene had bled in his work and was likely to bleed in his race. The only bleeding George Keene ever did was to bleed his backers and to lose a little blood when Lehman bit him on the nose in the car in the course of his journey from Satatoga.

"Goorge B Cox won the fifth race at a mile, in the fast time of 1:40.3-5. He was entered to be sold for $700. Edward Purser bid him up to $1.500, but his owner refused to let him go, and bid the necessary $5 to retain him.

George E. Smith intended to have Barrett ride The Winner. His brether, William Smith, who trains for him, engaged Sloan. Smith did not bet on The Winner, who finished third.

The benefit for the widow of Charles Victor Sass at Brighton on next Friday is likely to furnish some attractive racing, as the owners of several well-known stables have promised to make entries. As Mr. Sass was extremely popular with horse-owners and trainers, the programme is expected to be a good one. The regular rates of admission will prevail, but that will not prevent visitors to the track from paying something additional if they so desire.

BASE HITS.

The New-York and Brooklyn teams play their final games in the West to-morrow, returning home to play together in Brooklyn on Labor Day. Manager Ewing of the Cincinnati Club has been sick for several days. He had a fainting spell on Wednesday and he did not attend the game. A Cleveland paper claims that baseball is not dead in that city. It says the players of the Cleveland team are popular, but that the enthusiasts there are sick and tired of the management, and refuse to support the club for that reason. There was a decided change in the positions in the League race yesterday. Cleveland's second de-feat of Boston enabled Cincinnati to regain first place. Chicago also passed New-York, taking fifth place. The New-York team is crippled at present. Davis is still unable to play, and yesterday both Hartman and Warner were reported on the sick list. Gettig was forced to cover third base and Seymour right field. The team's misery was complete when Joyce put in Doheny to pitch.

VANDERPOOL AND HUBBARD LEFT IN FOR THE PRESIDENT'S CUP.

FORMER BEATS SARGENT AND HUBBARD WINS

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE]

Newport, R. L. Sept. 1.—If college youngsters had not been breaking records all summer and doing other astonishing things on the links, the result in some surprise, but as it is they will be put down turned the nicest calculations of the golfing set all the things well dene is to describe each incident of the play. Hubbard was drawn against Clark, of Harvard, while Vanderpool met G. M. Sargent, of brought out an amusing situation in the shape of a rival clique of Harvard boys, who seemed to grand fron shot for his second, which carried hith and the thirteenth, and quit a winner by 4 and 2 to go.

I colling puzzles are coming up thick and fast this seek. This is the one brought out by to-day's arch. If Hubbard can best Clark, and Clark can at Travis, as he did at Shinnecock, who will win stween Hubbard and Travis! The point of the leg is that Travis holds the record for the champonship links at Morristown, and if a youngster nineteen can beat the record-holder, what is to come of the champlonship? The fallacy of guing in this way, however, is in giving a boy to Hubbard credit for a victory that he probably uld not repeat away from Newport. Hubbard has eat most of the summer here, and could play the urse with his eyes shut. He knows just where a good lies are, and makes for them with unring accuracy. That's what gave him half the riory to-day. The cards of the match follow:

*Byes not played.

It is suggestive of what is taking place in golf in this country that both Foxball P. Keene and A. M. Coates, two veterans who were picked to meet in the semi-finals, should have trailed along in the crowd that watched the play, applianding strokes of their younger rivals that they themselves could not hope to equal. Coates, however, is going to Morristown, and will play in the championship.

THE CONSOLATION PLAY. The first and second rounds at match play among the eight who qualified for the consolation cup the Richmond County Country Club, as drawn against W. L. Mauran, of Providence, and won easily. M. S. Barger, of Harvard, was another of the consolation players, having as his opponent J. T. Mauran, also of Providence. Barger plays on the Harvard team, and in the vernacular of that University, he is "out of sight." Certainly that describes his play to-day. How far out of sight he was will be discovered by a careful reading of the appended summary. Grenville Kane, of Tuxelo, was drawn against W. P. Thompson, of Newport, and won in a close match by 1 up. The other contest in the first round was between R. F. Huntington, of Staatsburg, and F. H. Bohlen, of the Philadelphia Cricket Cluo. Bohlen is the man who accompanied the Philadelphia cricketer is not always a good golfer, as Huntington's victory of 2 up and 1 to go shows. Huntington's score by strokes was: J. T. Mauran, also of Providence. Barger plays

*Bye fele.

This left Mauran and Paterson and Kane and Huntington as the pairs for the semi-finals. Mauran had a hot match with Paterson, and won by one up. In going for the fourteenth Mauran foozied his first brassy and topped his second, but by good luck this latter stroke slipped between the bunkers and rolled into the green. Kane rounded the ninth green I up on Huntington, and won the match on the last hole by an eight-inch putt. In going for the green Kane was I up and playing one off two. He overran the cup, and Huntington did the same. Both played back and again overreached, but Kane laid Huntington a stymle on the lip of the cup, and the hole was halved, giving Kane the match. On Saturday Kane and Mauran will meet in the finals at eighteen holes.

To-morrow there is to be a thirty-six-inch hole handicap for the prize presented by O. H. P. Belmont. About seventy entries have been received. The summary follows:

President's Cup (semi-final round)—W. D. Vanderpool, Morte County, best G. M. Sargent, Harvard, 5 up and 5.

Bar Harbor, Sept. 1 (Special).—The semi-finals in the foursome golf tournament for the Lippincott Cup were played off this afternoon. The two matches played were very exciting and productive of the best kind of golf. The two fast teams were defeated. He will leave the city promptly at midnight and he expects to make the trip to Boston in about eighteen hours. The present record is held by Mrs. A. M. C. Allen, made this year, of 23:39:34. Local riders will pace Taylor as far as Bridgeport. R. B. Tracy will pace him from Bridgeport to Meriden. R. M. Alexander, a time-winner in the tryington-Milbium race, will do the pacing from Hartford to Springfield. From that point to Boston fast tandem and triplet teams will be used. The distance is 251 miles, and with anything like good weather Taylor is confident that he will make the trip well under twenty hours. ond record. been too much for even the hardened riders of the wheel, and comparatively few riders have been seen on the uptown drives and roads during the seen on the uplown drives and roads during the morning and afternoon. The usual number, however, has been seen out at night. There was a goodly throng on the Boulevard and Riverside Drive last night, and the riders looked to be more comfortable than did the sweltering pedestrians on the sidewalks. Whatever breeze was blowling was sure to be caught by the wheelmen. Over in Brooklyn the Cycle Path has not been thronged during the morning and afternoon, but there have been large turnouts at night. Wheelmen who have made the trip to Concy Islamo recently are complaining bitterly about the bad condition of the crossing at Neptune-ave. The streetcar tracks have been laid down without regard to the path, with the result that wheelmen on their way to the island get a series of bumps and jars when passing over the car tracks which they do not forget in a minute. The space on each side of the tracks, as well as between them, should be levelled off. This crossing is nearly as bad as the one at the trolley-car tracks nearer the island. Owners of good wheels cannot understand why such things are permitted to exist.

It is stated that a further investigation is to be made, and that the facts developed will be followed by action by the Secretary. This may result in a refusal to issue the bonds in all cases found to have been illegal.

Secretary Gage said to-night that the investigation showed that a large amount of the bids offered were not bona fide, but that in none of the cases involved in the investigation had the bonds been issued to the bidders. He said he had no doubt, however, that in some instances, as yet undiscovered, bonds bid for in a similar way had been issued unknowingly by the Department.

GARRISON DUTY FOR SD CONNECTICUT.

ORDERED FROM CAMP HAVEN TO MIDDLETOWN

Camp Haven, Niantic, Conn., Sept. 1 (Special)-At noon to-day Colonel A. C. Tyler, of the 3d Connecticut Volunteer Infantry, received orders from the War Department for the regiment to proceed to Camp Meade, Middletown, Penn., not later than next Monday. The order was read to each com-complete surprise. For some days it has been rumored that the 1st For some days it has been rumored that the 1st Connecticut, now at Dunn Loring, Va., is to be mustered out, and the 3d retained for garrison duty in the West Indies, but the majority of the men in the 3d still had hopes of being mustered out. It is claimed that fully 90 per cent of the enlisted men desire to return home, now that the war is over. Many individual efforts have been made to have the regiment mustered out, and this order, which apparently means a prospect for the full two years' service, is a keen disappointment to most of the troops.

It has been represented to the War Department that the 1st Regiment, made up mostly of National Guardsmen, contains many more men who left good oushess places than the 3d, the latter regiment having been largely recruited from men who were out of work, although it contained several hundred National Guardsmen, who made great personal sacrifices in order to enlist. It is stated that for this reason the 3d is retained and the 1st will be released.

The 3d Regiment will take the place of the 1st in The 3d Regiment will take the place of the 1st in the Second Army Corps. The 1st has been ordered to Camp Raven to be furloughed for a few weeks and then mustered out. Colonel Tyler states that the 3d will move by way of New-York as soon as transportation, can be arranged, probably on Sus-

All the signs indicate that the cycling gymkhana and carnival of the Century Wheelmen to take place to-morrow at Berkeley Oval, will be a success. From the time the trial heats of the one-mile novice are started, at 1:30 p. m., until midnight will be one continuous round of peasure, according to the management. The programme includes regular races, gymkhana sports, club parade, concert, fireworks, carnival features, music and dancing. It is safe to say that rarely, if ever, has such a varied programme been offered for public approval in cycling.
